Hyper

Daily Video Magazine

Designed in 2015

ABOUT Hyper paired highly selective video curation with immersive and frictionless design. The result was a beautifully stylized, thoughtfully curated daily video magazine. Hyper got acquired by News Publisher Mic in 2016.

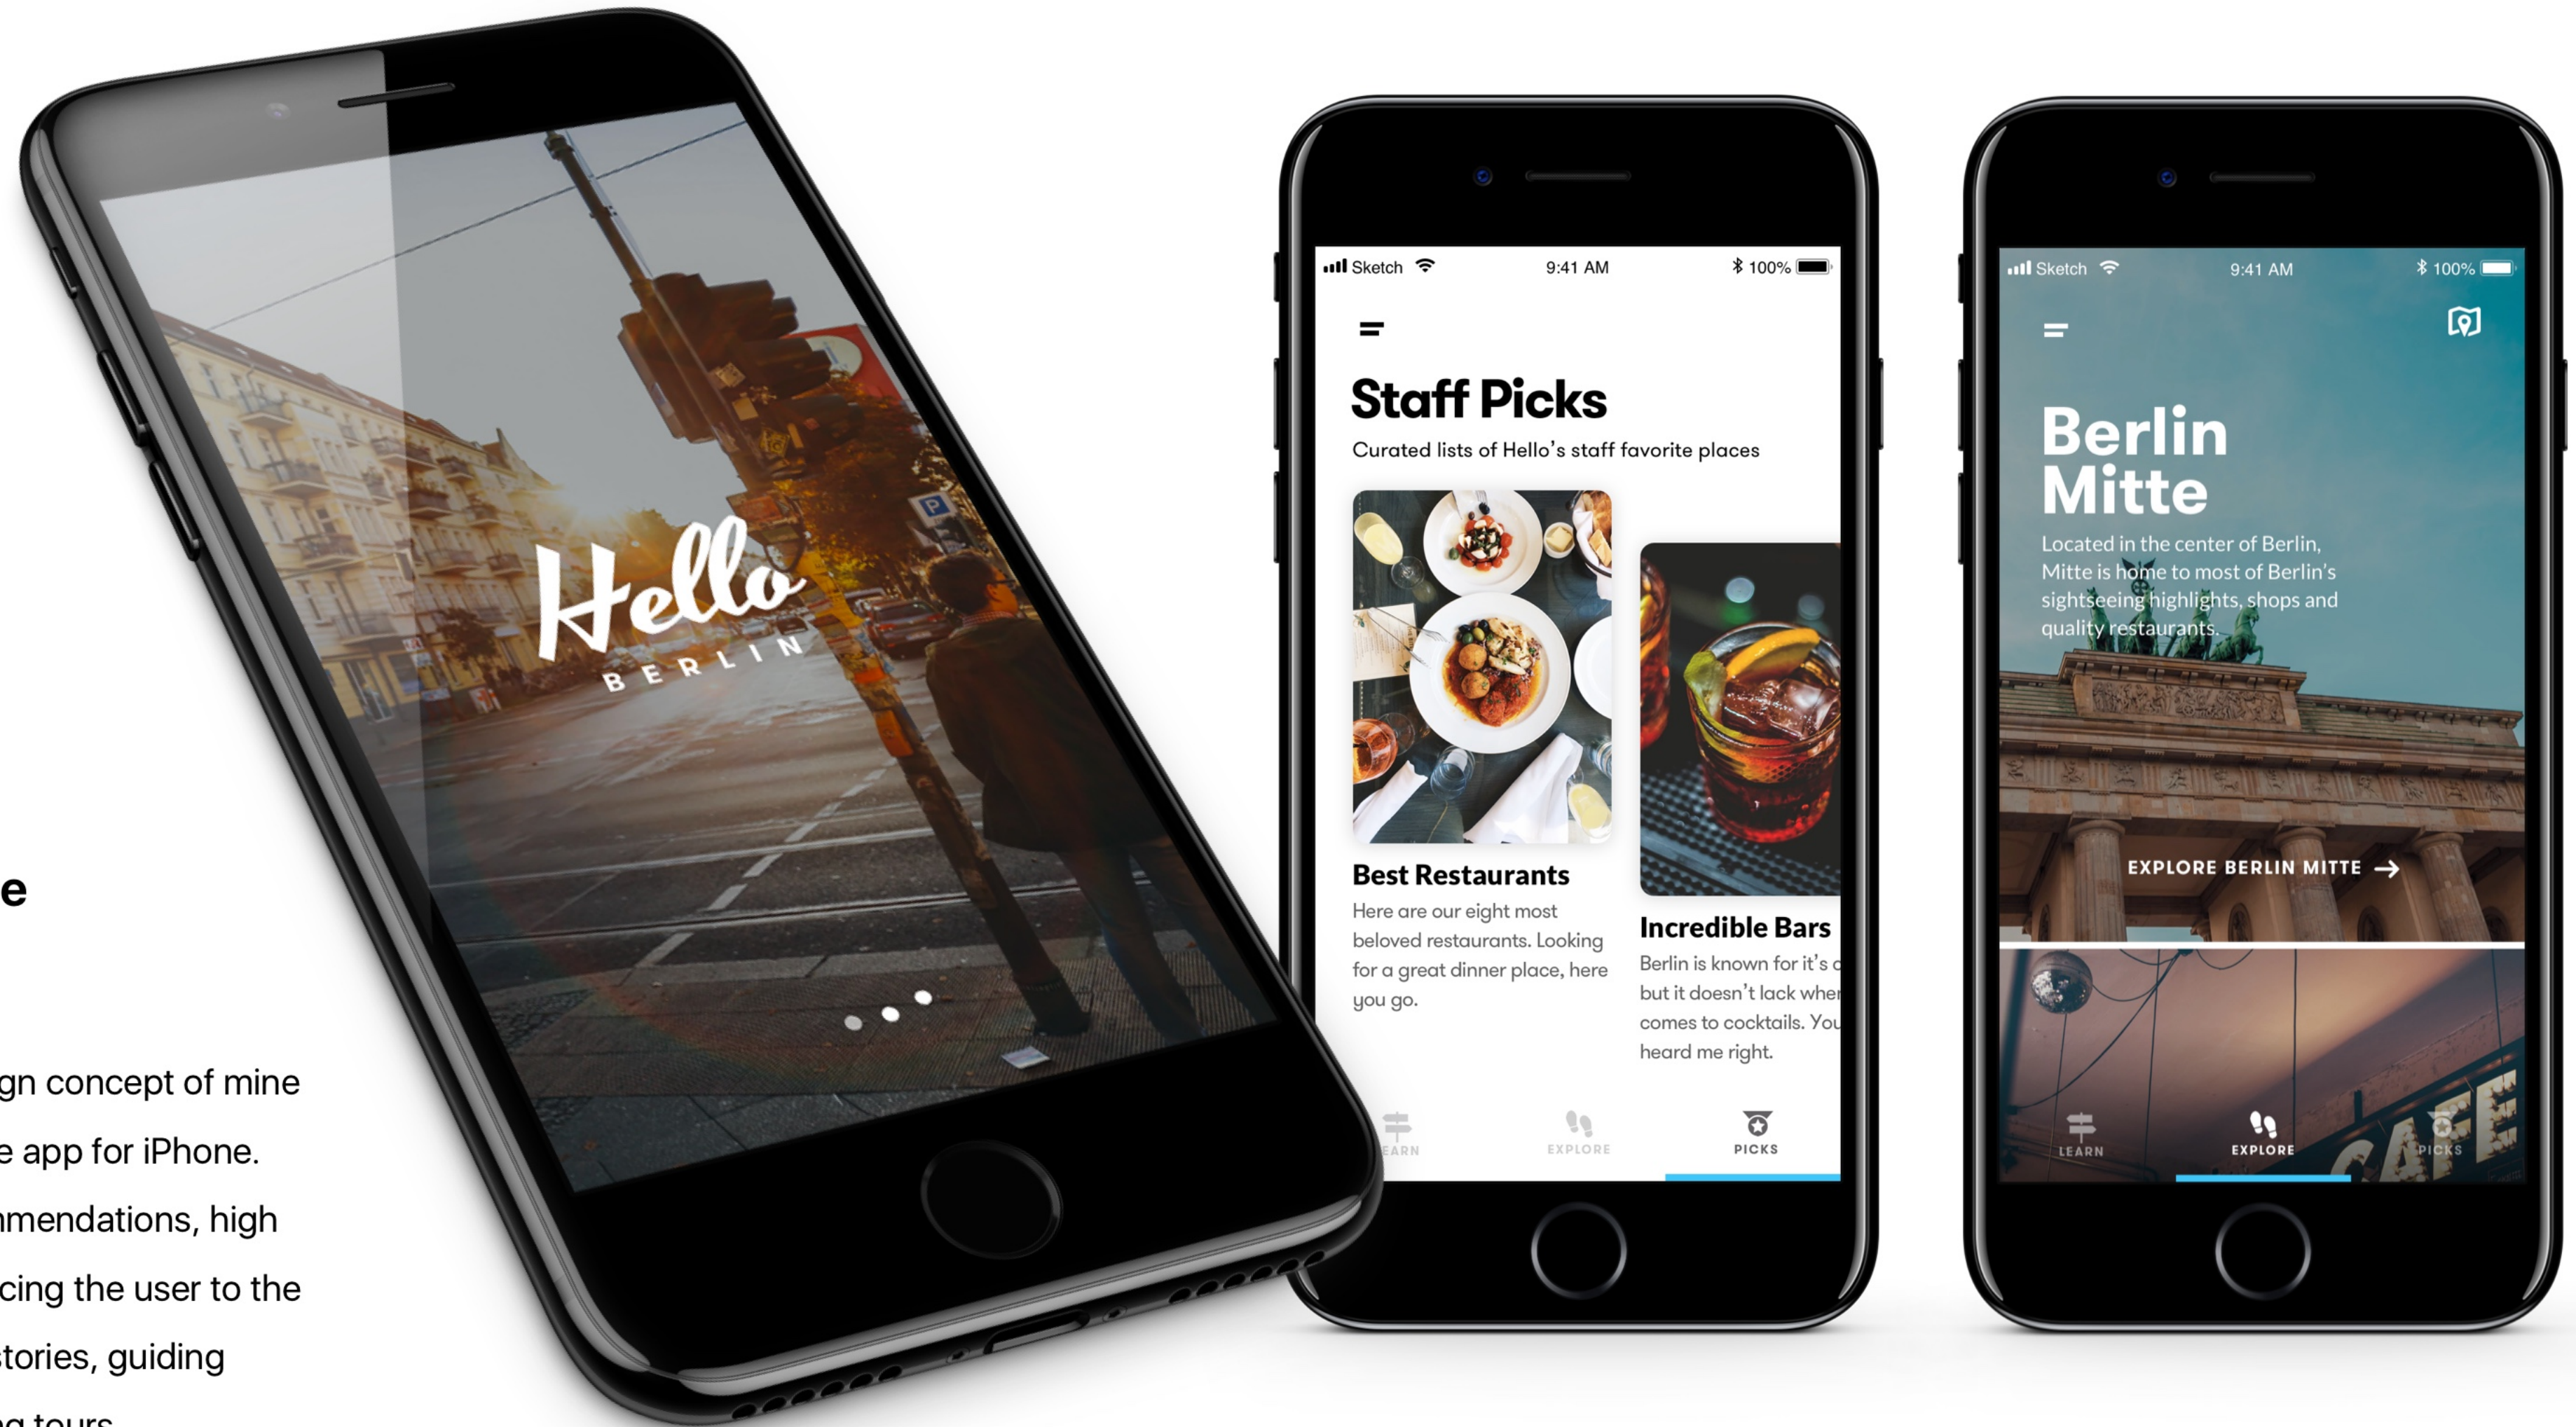

Hello

Curated Travel Guide

Designed in 2018

ABOUT Hello: Berlin is a design concept of mine for a video based travel guide app for iPhone. Hello features curated recommendations, high quality video content introducing the user to the city as well as personalized stories, guiding visitors on hand made walking tours.

Hyper

for Apple TV

Designed in 2016

Hyper for Apple TV brought Hyper's award-winning video selection to the big screen and received the very first editors choice badge on the new tvOS platform.

Pinio

Video Based Discussion Platform

Designed in 2013

ABOUT This project really got me started in designing after having worked as cameraman and filmmaker before. With very little skills in Photoshop I developed the concept, design and brand for this webRTC based video discussion platform.
